Life Ban Ordered On Ex-Judge

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. — (AP) — Former Judge Raulston Schoolfield, whose troubles sprang from the U.S. Senate's investigation of the Teamsters union, has been ordered barred from the practice of law for life.

JAN 22 1960

The judgment, preceded by Schoolfield's 1958 impeachment as a Chattanooga Criminal court judge, was handed down in a Chancery court suit brought by the Tennessee and Chattanooga bar associations.
